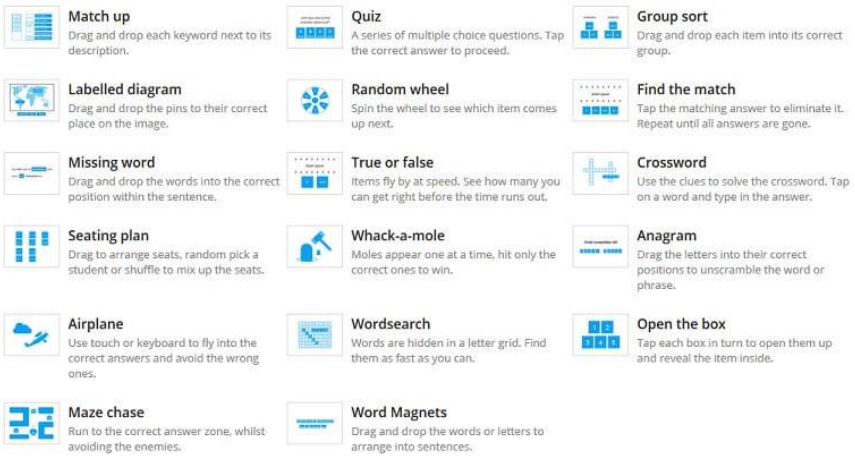
Creating Interactive Activities with Wordwall

Wordwall is an online platform where we can create activities. This is a tool, that we can create crossword puzzles with, matching questions, anagram games, and much more. So many possibilities, but most importantly everything is done with few clicks on the computer. Let's get to know how;

Visit the official site, and sign up. Alternatively, use your existing Google account. Once you log in, you can update your profile if you wish to do so.
So you are ready to create. Click Create Activity. Everything is done in 3 steps;

Step 1 is the choice of activity. In the free version you have 16 different options that will surely cover you;



Step 2 to add content to your activity;
Let's look at an example with the "Crossword" activity. Here we have a few words to use

BIODIVERSITY	The total variety of living organisms
CONSERVATION	Protection of habitats and ecosystems
POPULATION	All of the individuals of a species living in a habitat or ecosystem
COMMUNITY	Group of populations living and interacting with each other in a common habitat.
VARIATION	Range of characteristics displayed by a population
EVOLUTION	The development of new species over very long periods of geological time
ADAPTATION	The development of particular characteristics in an organism which enable it to survive better in its environment.
SPECIATION	The formation of new species when populations of a species become isolated and evolve differently
GENETIC MUTATION	Change in the DNA structure of a gene through a change in the base sequence (2 words)

When you are complete click DONE and see you crossward.

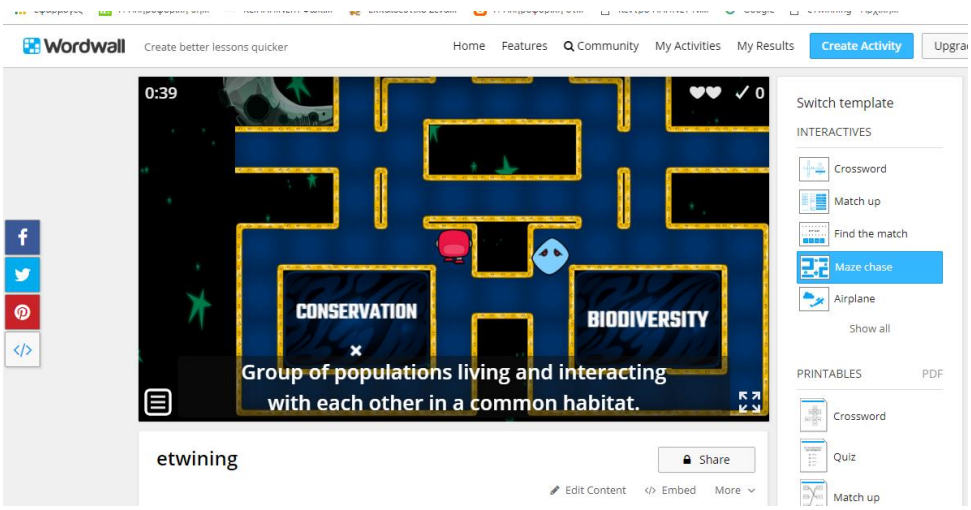
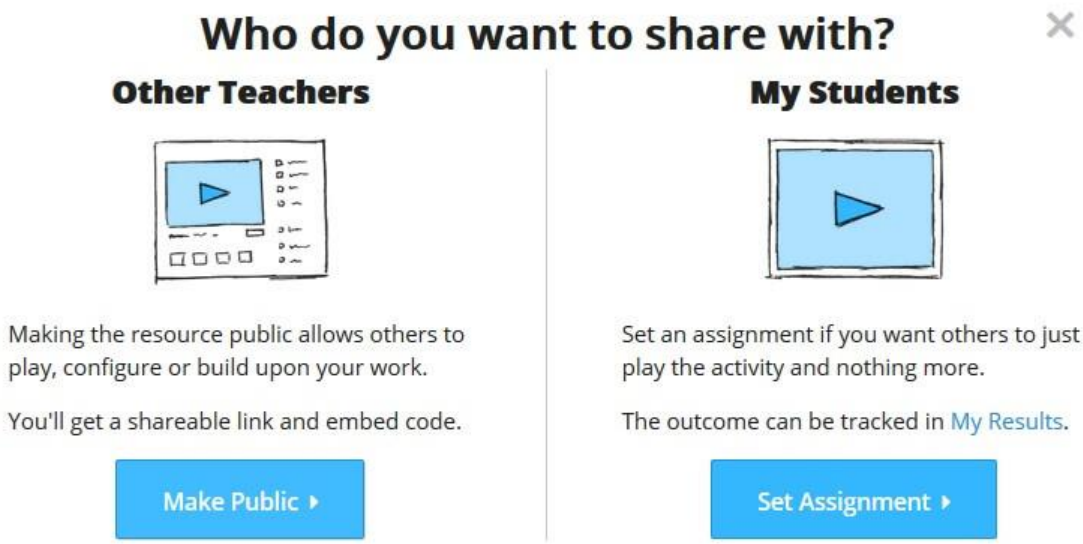
Step 3 use the activity. Let's see what's here. In this activity, we can solve the crossword but the strong point of the application here is that from the right toolbar you can simply change the type of activity without any other change in your data



Most models have a printable format. So you create your activity by following the steps above and just print it if you do not want or can not use it online.
-All activities can be shared by clicking Share:



If you choose to share with students, you will need to make some adjustments and you will have a response report and record their performance (You can see their performance in My Results): In addition to the Wordwall community page, you will find incredible premade material from all over the world, which you can use. Have fun!
