
UK has the greatest number of citizens who live in a foreign country (5500000.)
And Romania has the smallest number of citizens in a foreign country (153000.)
France and Spain have similar amounts with more than 1500000 citizens in a foreign country.
Italy and Greece also have similar amounts with around 4500000 citizens in a foreign country.
Turkey is in the middle with around 3500000 citizens in a foreign country.
We think the reason that people might want to leave their country could be the fact that they want a better job.