

Etwinning

Your course begins in Paris, you must go in front of historical monument of the capital. This monument was built in XIV century, it is bordered by the Seine and contains gargoyles.

You must then go at train station the most near to take the RER C direction Dourdan la foret.

Among all this train station one city is crossing by a river and historical for the bulding of the most big runway in Europe. It measures 3000 metres long and 100 metres wide, this air-base was built in 1949.

