Favorite Memory from last year is my birthday! All my friends made me a surprise cake. We go out for a walk and ^{some} of my friends call us and they told us they wouldn't come with us. And suddenly I saw them with a birthday cake! Wow! It was the best and cutest birthday ever!

Favorite Memory from Last Year

I think that last year was fascinating. Specifically, I will never forget the three-day school trip to Athens. Me and my classmates to great places, such as the Acropolis and the Parthenon and we had a really good time. Last but not least, we went to a pop concert and danced together with our favorite singer.
