Hungary: Impact on using ICT at school

KAHOOT! has become very popular at school among teachers and students too. Students regularly use this application to make various presentations. It is a great fun for them both when they create it or when they play it.

To help the teachers to use this application we had training for the staff.