Look at this image and see how society influences and inculcates racism to our children from an early age and if we do not do something to prevent it this is the result:

But we can prevent it if we teach them in time like in this image: