

How to create blackout poetry using Canva

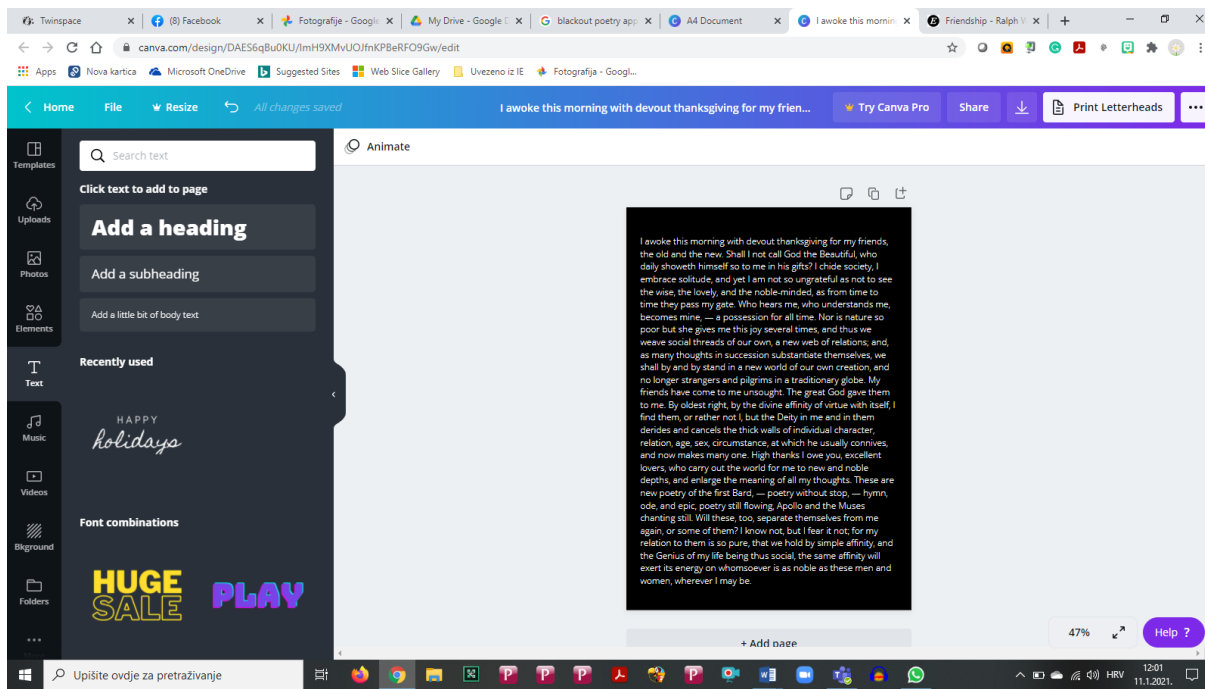

Log in to Canva and choose A4 Document template

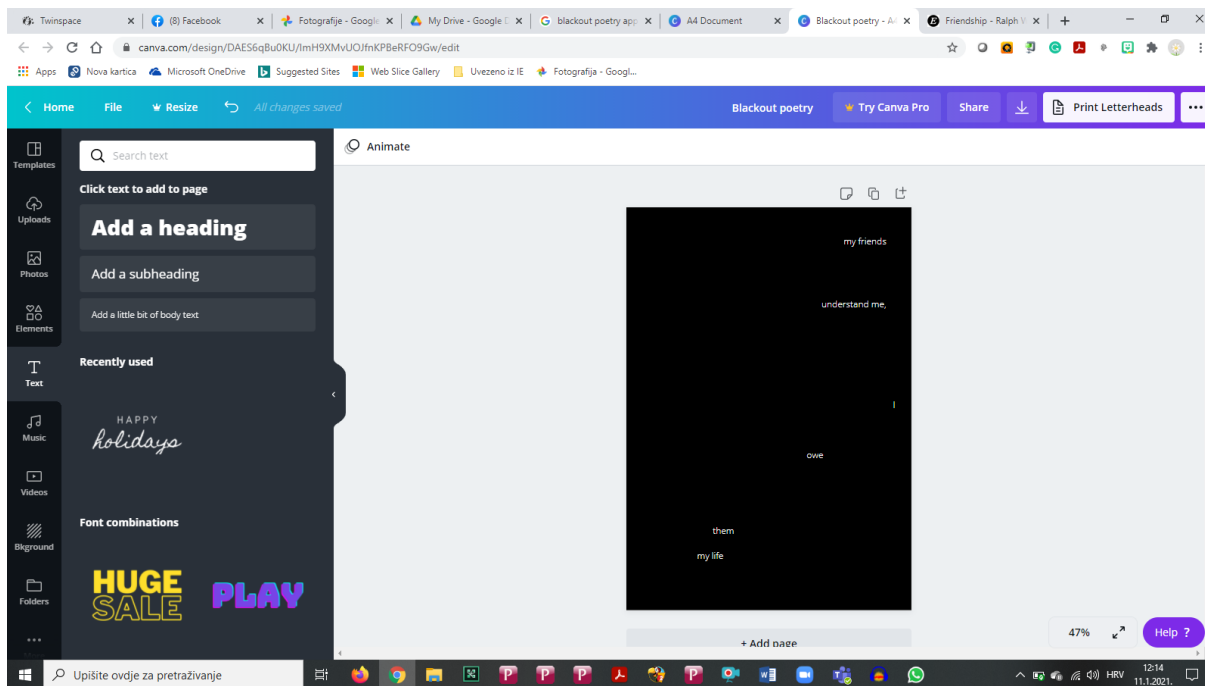

Start with a blank document

Choose a square shape and adjust it to the page

Choose the words you are going to leave visible white and the ones you are not going to use change into black.

Insert image to illustrate your poetry (you can upload your own drawings or some images you find on pixabay or unsplash, you can use the ones in canva as well).

