

The Hungarian Christmas

Varga Lili

Luca sun

Habits:

On Luca's day, the kids went from house to house, saying rhymes and greetings for a small gift, if they didn't get a gift, they said curses.

Luca chair: made for a long time and witches burned on it.

Midnight Mass

Information:

Among Christians, attending the midnight Mass on December 24 is one of the most important traditions in connection with Christmas.

If someone stands up in Luca's chair, you can see the witches, but there is also a rumor that while people are at Mass, their shoulders will gather and talk to their lords.

Santa Claus

Information:

In the evening, the kids put their cleaned boots to the window and on the morning of the 6th they get.

Santa Claus rides on a flying sleigh pulled by nine reindeer. Legend has it that the first reindeer was called Rudolf because of his red nose.

Kids love Santa because he carries a lot of chocolate to a good kid and a long comma to the bad.

Advent

Information:

We light four candles until Christmas Eve (Sunday)

The word advent refers to waiting.

The colour of the candles is 3 pieces purple and 1 piece pink.

Christmas market

Tale:

Christmas fairs were held so that you could buy everything there for your loved ones, but these days you can only buy a good mulled wine and gingerbread.

Setting up a pine tree

Information:

The history of pine decoration in the XVI.

Therefore, pine twigs were hung everywhere, only later they began to cut down the trees and set them up in the room.

At first, only candles were attached to it, later it was decorated with apples, nuts, ornaments made of wood and textiles.

The custom of claiming a Christmas tree only spread in Hungary in the 19th century.

Christmas Eve

Information:

The family celebrates Christmas Eve together.

We give gifts to our loved ones.

Christmas Eve: December 24.

Christmas traditional food

Information:

At Christmas there are many delicious dishes: fish soup, stuffed cabbage, walnut poppy seed cake, gingerbread, roast turkey, dessert.

What is Christmas about?

the most important:

- about happiness
- about the family
- about rest
- it helps to give
- about calm

Christmas candy

Information:

Christmas candy is the most famous sweet in Hungary.

They are also hung on Christmas trees.

They have several flavors and are very delicious.

Christmas songs

most beautiful
songs:

- White Christmas <https://youtu.be/USflNXlde4c>
- Little Christmas big Christmas <https://youtu.be/yaaDQG9tkUw>
- Ringing word <https://youtu.be/WqSqa4NRjJM>
- Holy christmas evening <https://youtu.be/J-fGrJNealM>

Bethlehem

Tale:

Bethlehem, because then the little Jesus was born.

In the barn among animals.

The shepherds brought gifts.

the manger is still visible today.

Big christmas stamp

Information:

The 3 kings and the shepherds are coming, namely on Christmas Eve holiday stamps.

Anyway, they are approaching as Advent weekends pass.

Here's the season for Christmas cards and cards again, and that's when it's so good to put a little extra energy into personalizing your selection, writing, handwriting.

Regalia

Information:

It is common in the countryside - especially in Transdanubia - today, which is a kind of fertility magic.

The elders wished for a good harvest, abundance and wealth next year with loud singing and even louder noise - flute, bastard and rattle chain.

Usually, the boys also had a back intent, as they mostly went to houses where there was still only one girl.

Mistletoe

Information:

One of the most popular is the hanging of mistletoe, which the legend holds new, that if two people stand under and change kisses, they fall in love.

The saying also holds that kisses are free under mistletoe.

Little Saints daily caning

Information:

On May 23, the day of Pentecost, they remember the little ones that Herod sentenced to death in search of Jesus.

At such times, the men walk the village with a willow or whip made of willow to gently slap the girls and women, saying that once the boys suffered, now the women need it.

Thank you for your attention!