

The market of unused toys

In occasion of the first november, our school organised a market of used and unused toys, where children brought old toys. A day after, on the 2nd of November, the school organised a second-hand toy market. Children could buy an used toy for a few cents and play with it. This was an experience of re-use of things!!!

