

Interview

1. To what extent has the project "Empower Students with Entrepreneurial Skills" responded to the needs of the students in our school grouping?

As the name implies, the project has developed entrepreneurial abilities for students, it was a starting point for starting a business

2. In your opinion, how did the project contribute for a positive image of our school?

~~the~~ Through our project, our school name has been known in several European countries,

3. Regarding the disclosure of the project and its activities, was it accurate or do you recommend other forms of disclosure?

I consider that the disclosure of the project and its activities pretty accurate and helped students to understand what is business about

4. Refer to the adequacy of the activities developed during the project.

The activities carried out during the project were well chosen and achieved the purpose of the project

Interview

1. To what extent has the project "Empower Students with Entrepreneurial Skills" responded to the needs of the students in our school grouping?

The students learn about what means to start a new business on your own. They extended their knowledge about entrepreneurial skills and some of them got some practical and useful ideas about business.

2. In your opinion, how did the project contribute for a positive image of our school?

The Erasmus project usually empowers the teachers and students to improve their work to be good in quality and facts. It is a handy tool to show other that you are good as a school and you care about your students.

3. Regarding the disclosure of the project and its activities, was it accurate or do you recommend other forms of disclosure?

I suppose that all the activities were well prepared by the host schools and each country, which participated in the project did what is the best to needed.

4. Refer to the adequacy of the activities developed during the project.

A lot of activities developed. The idea of how to become a business man and to be good on the market place. How to do it is one of the most important topic. Many students are interested to become a business man and especially one of a great success. It is an adequate project for high schools.