

What are some challenges of working abroad?	different work culture		- language skills - very strict rules	- getting used to a different work life	discrimination
15. Can you name some "study abroad opportunities" offered in our country?	- scholarships - school twinings	scholarships	Erasmus	- Erasmus - scholarships	- scholarships - university exchange programmes - TÜBİTAK funds
16. In what way can it be an advantage for the professional or personal development to study abroad?	creating vision for work life	- being able to comply with different cultures - becoming customer oriented	- depends on field you want to study - in all countries some universities are better in certain fields	having vision	acquiring vision
17. What kind of challenges would we face in case we decide to study abroad?	cultural confrontation	- language skills - diplomacy	being able to communicate in foreign languages	cultural customs	language skills
18. What skills would we need most in case we decide to study abroad?	- communication in foreign languages - cultural conformity	communication	language skills	language skills	depends on the field you want to choose
19. Have you ever considered studying or working abroad? What held you back or motivated you?	- high income is motivating - studying or working abroad for a long time can be intimidating	would love to go abroad to learn languages	no, I like my job	no, I like my job	would love to work abroad because of high standards
20. Which jobs are more popular nowadays? What skills are most important for these jobs?	popular jobs: engineering the skills needed: - ambition, diligence, determination	- health sector - medicine has always been popular - technical skills are so important for those jobs	- health sector - jobs that require experience in ICT - tourism	- design - ICT based jobs	electrical and electronics engineering
21. Which jobs lost popularity nowadays? Which jobs are not needed in the world of work anymore?	All jobs are popular as long as you have enough qualifications	teaching and business are not so popular anymore	- in Trabzon, tinning - education system should change	teaching	handicrafts
22. Which jobs do you think will be popular in the future? What skills would be needed for these jobs?	- innovative jobs will be more popular - technical skills would be most needed	- health sector and psychology will be more popular - knowledge, critical thinking would be most needed	- logistics - technology based jobs - engineering - entrepreneurship is the main prerequisite for these jobs	software creating	- education - energy - technology based jobs
23. Can you name 3 most important hard skills that job candidates need in order to be employed in our country?	- reliability - honesty - determination	- being able to explain yourself - critical thinking - customer orientation	- communication	- education attainment - language skills - professional competence	- language skills - qualifications - personal development
24. Can you name 3 most important hard skills that job candidates need in order to be employed in our country?	- conformity - diligence - honesty	- public speaking skills - impression of being trustworthy - being able to convince that you are suitable for the job	- communication - body language	- education attainment - language skills - professional competence	- capital - reference
25. Do you think high school or university graduates in our country are equipped with skills needed in the world of work? If not, why?	not actually, the reasons - parents push their children into certain schools or fields - inadequate education	- neither high school nor university graduates are equipped with needed skills because education system changes very often	- no, education system and family are the main reasons - families are quite perfectionist	no, education should be planned taking into consideration demand and needs	unfortunately no, because our education system focuses on theory rather than practice

Funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

"Funded by the Erasmus+ Program of the European Union. However, European Commission and Turkish National Agency cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein".