

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Summary of project questionnaires

Erasmus+ project “Learning is interesting and fun”

Final French evaluation

1. Questionnaire for teachers

- At the beginning of the project teachers don't use so much technology in classroom
- At the end of the project all teachers said they know more skills to create learning activities, using technology. They more less stress to use this kind of teachnig method.
- Teachers mentioned they use a more variety of equipment .
- All teachers mentioned that technology is useful when planning learning activities and also that learning activities are now more interesting.
- All teachers said that they plan to continue using technology and try to continue to develop more their activities.
- Teachers said that the positive effect on children was: activities in groups, children are more active, learning is more interesting for them, children have new skills.
- Teachers said that the positive effect on them was: new skills, a collection of equipment and environments.

2. Questionnaire for children

- At the end of the project children mention more robots and equipment. And also there is now more equipment in use as at the beginning of the project.
- Teachers use mostly bee-bot robots, blue-bot robots, tablets.
- All children questioned mentioned that activities are now more interesting for them with new equipment and like to be engaged in this project.
- Most of the children find that they are now able to cooperate with other children, work in pairs and use speech to find solutions together.
- Most of the children say that they have participated in smart weeks and at the end of the project all children say that they like smart weeks.
- All children questioned say that they want their group to continue using technology and robots during learning activities.

3. Questionnaire for parents

- Children mostly use at home computer, tablets and smart phones.
- Parents have quite enough information about equipment used in kindergarten
- Parents mostly get their information from children and teachers.
- All parents support using technology in learning activities.
- All parents planned to take part in Erasmus activities but just about 40 % of them actually did.
- All parents say they wish their group continues to use technology in learning activities.
- All parents say they wish that kindergarten takes part in international projects in the future.
- Some activities were cancelled because of pandemic!