The Basilicata region is in the southern part of the so called "boot"

It is lapped by the Ionian sea and the Tyrrhenian sea

it has many wonderful places

A

Potenza

is the capital of the Basilicata region it has 66 970 inhabitants

"Teatro Stabile" a theatre where a lot of plays are performed

We are waiting for you

Matera

is the second main town in Basilicata, it is the capital of culture 2019

These are the so-called "Sassi" (which means stones), this picture shows a beautiful landscape of this old part of the town. «Sassi» is one of the Unesco world heritage sites in Italy

At the end of the «festival of the Bruna» (a festival dedicated to "Madonna della Bruna" the patron vergin saint of the town) people organize an assault on a folk and colourful cart

Every guy who takes a piece of this cart will be lucky for the rest of the year. The cart is made up of papier-mache remember it...

2nd step teachers and students analyse the local market

Basilicata region has a lot of typical products

Aglianico grapes for a very tasteful and full-bodied red wine

Olives of great quality for a tasteful extravirgin olive oil

Tomatoes ripen thanks to the sun of south

Typical local products called «Cruschi Peppers» ,they are crunchy when fried

They become dried tomatoes or canned or bottled tomato and more...

Italian cheese: Caciocavallo podolico (the name podolico derives from a breed of cattle living in our region)

Pecorino cheese (sheep milk)

«Sarconi beans» cultivated in the native small village that gives the name to the product

Typical sausage called "salsiccia lucanica"

Long leavening bread, baked in Matera. It is a PGI product (protected geographical indication)

Italian dried pasta

Local honey

Salted and sweet cookies

The foodstuff tradition of our land is astonishing. Our specialities are exportable, but we have strong competitors.....;-)

For this reason we have produced what we can do best.....
