

European Union and his benefits for us

The European Union is an organization of European countries dedicated to increasing economic integration and strengthening cooperation between states. The European Union has its headquarters in Brussels, Belgium and was founded officially on 1 November 1993. It is the most recent organization of European cooperation that began with the European Coal and Steel Community of 1951 which became the European Community. The members of this organization were: Belgium, Britain, Denmark, France, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Portugal and Spain. European Union has several objectives. In particular, it works to promote and expand cooperation among members in some areas, including economic, social and trade-related foreign policy, security and judicial matters EU enlargement is primarily a political options to restore and maintain peace and prosperity throughout Europe. Economically, its expansion raises many questions. The large disparities existing in economically determined, especially in member countries, concerns increasingly apparent to assess the effects of enlargement: whether in terms of political stability in Europe, the benefits of enlargement were unanimously accepted economic but there were even more there are numerous concerns that will arise costs for Member States determined in particular by applying agricultural policy and regional policy in the new Member States, especially as these costs could be higher than the economic benefits of enlargement. Romania for membership of the European Union will have a major impact on all facets of economic, political and social. Prevailing economic implications will be, but it will record radical mutations in the political, security, social and cultural. From the political perspective, decision-making mechanisms need to be reconfigured, meaning a transfer of competences to the EU institutions; But at the same time, Romania will benefit from the opportunity to participate at the complexes collective decision-making processes, thus will do advertise and will protect to their best interests.
