Creating an interactive video

Below the text, a quiz question is displayed: "Based on context clues, what does 'commencement' mean?". A text input field is provided for the answer. Below the input field are two buttons: "Continue" and a refresh button. At the bottom of the video player, a progress bar shows the current time as 0:41 and the total duration as 10:10. The progress bar is marked with green question marks, indicating interactive points. A "YouTube" logo is visible in the bottom right corner of the video frame.

Adding questions

A question editor interface. The top header is highlighted with a red border and contains a green square with a white question mark, a list icon with a checked box, a speech bubble icon, and the text '1 of 1 +'. Below the header is a rich text editor with a toolbar containing icons for bold (B), italic (I), underline (U), superscript (x²), subscript (x₂), link, image, formula (fx), and delete. The text area contains the placeholder 'Type your open ended question here'. At the bottom right, a 'Feedback' button with a refresh icon is highlighted with a red border.
