What did we discuss?

- Follow-up on the outdoor activities set for each month and on the dissemination tools. We reviewed the activities developed until now and confirmed that all of them have been uploaded to Twinspace and Facebook.
- The next outdoor activity to be done is the Civic Education one in October. Some schools have already done it but have yet to upload it to Twinspace and Facebook.
- Edition of the book: As soon as all of the Civic Education activities are uploaded to Twinspace, the book with all of the activities done during this project will be completed and published.
- Completing the final report: Melinda (RO) will send us some questions we need to answer so that she can complete the final report. These questions include aspects such as the involvement of other formal associations in the activities developed, the selection of the participants in the activities, the number of people who benefited from the project, the profile and background of the students selected in the mobilities, the dissemination tools used, and ways to continue developing these activities in the future without the Erasmus+ funding.

What did we decide?

- Activities yet to be done

October 2019: Outdoor activity in the area of Civic Education.

November 2019: Edition of the book. End of the project.

- Regarding the final report

Melinda (RO) will send us the questions she needs for us to answer so that she can complete the final report. Only when she has sent her final report can we send ours.

Other matters?

- We all agree that there have been no problems whatsoever during the development of this project and that we have all worked very well together.
