

REAL EAGLE

AQUILA CRYSAETOS

DESCRIPTION

These beautiful birds are dark and brown with some spots on the part of the head and the neck. They have Golden feathers. They are large and majestic animals, that measure from 66 to 102 cm long, with a wingspan than can reach 2,34 meters in the large species.

HABITAT

- Its habitat are open places, from the sea level to 3,600 metres altitude. They live in mountainous regions, but they can adapt in areas of tundra, taiga, bushes, forest and wetlands.

DIET

- Eagle can capture a wide range of prey. They eat vertebrates animals like: little mammals (rabbits, squirrels, rats, lizards, snakes, etc), birds and reptiles.

REPRODUCTION

- Eagles nest in very high places. Their nests are large and they can be used by several years. They put 1-4 eggs, which are incubated for 40-45 days.

BEHAVIOR

- Some eagles are migratory and other sedentary. They migrate in autumn months. They are solitary, but they can live in pairs or in small groups.

THE

END

