

QR-CODES

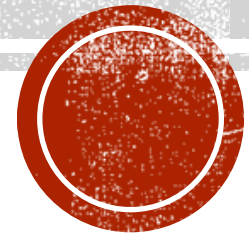

Paul, Noel, Fiona, Michelle, Laura

@ BGFeldkirch.AT :
Gymnasium established since 1649 !

Austria

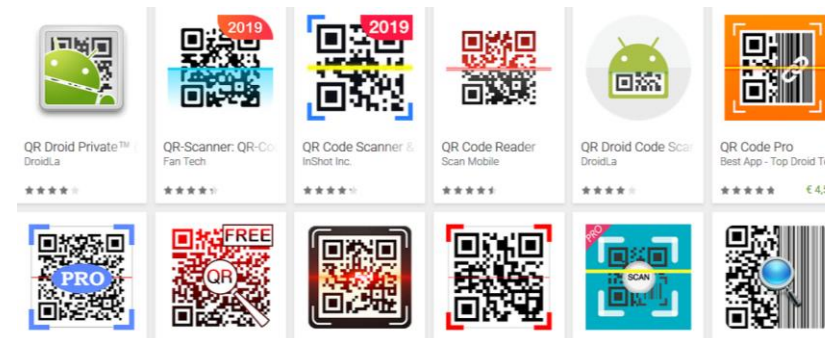

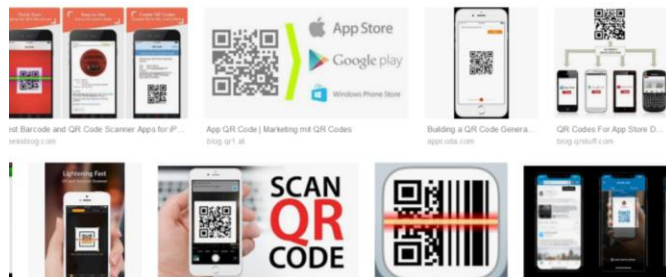

<http://Smart.eLearningCluster.at>

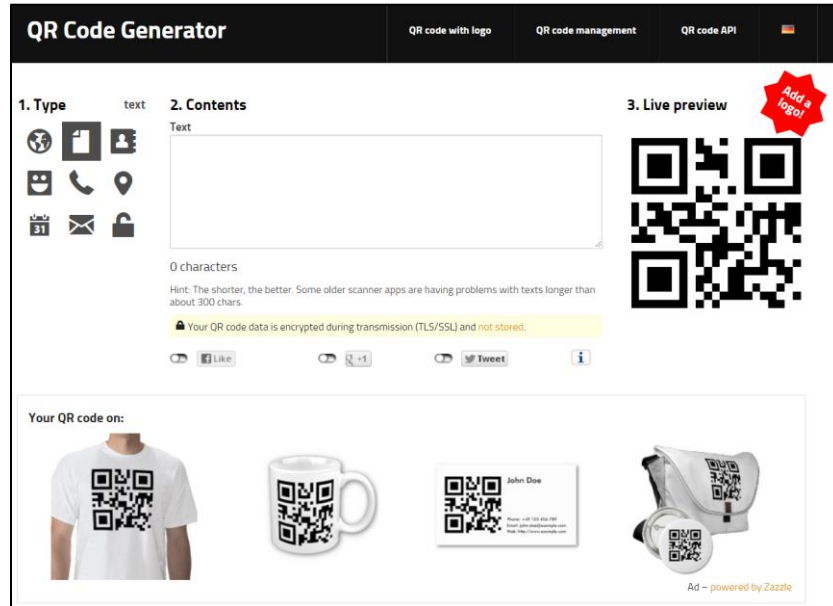

6.3.2019

QR-CODE:

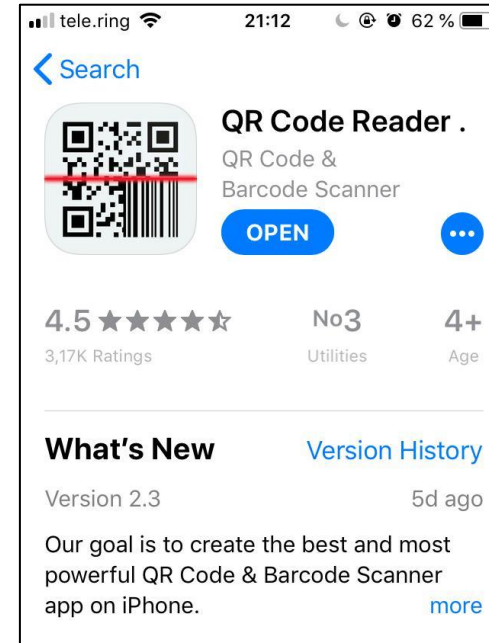

- Quick Response Code
- two-dimensional barcode
- first designed in 1994
- machine-readable optical label that contains information about the item to which it is attached
- data for a locator, identifier, or tracker that points to a website or application

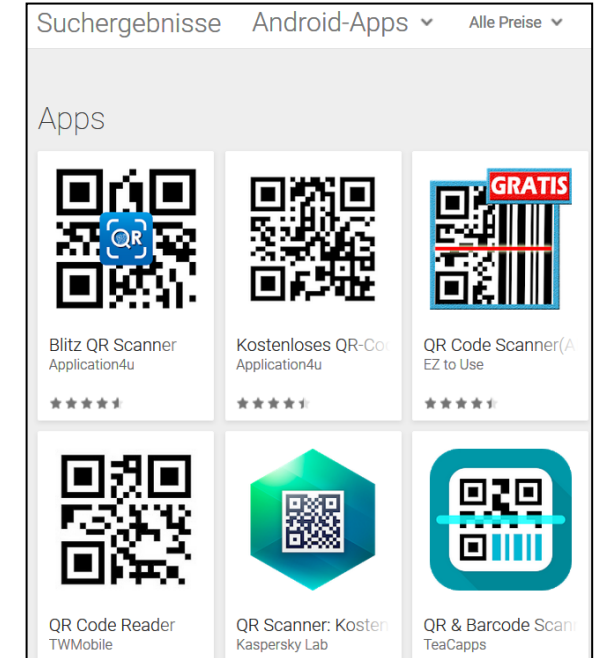

USEFUL APPS/WEBSITES TO GENERATE QR-CODES

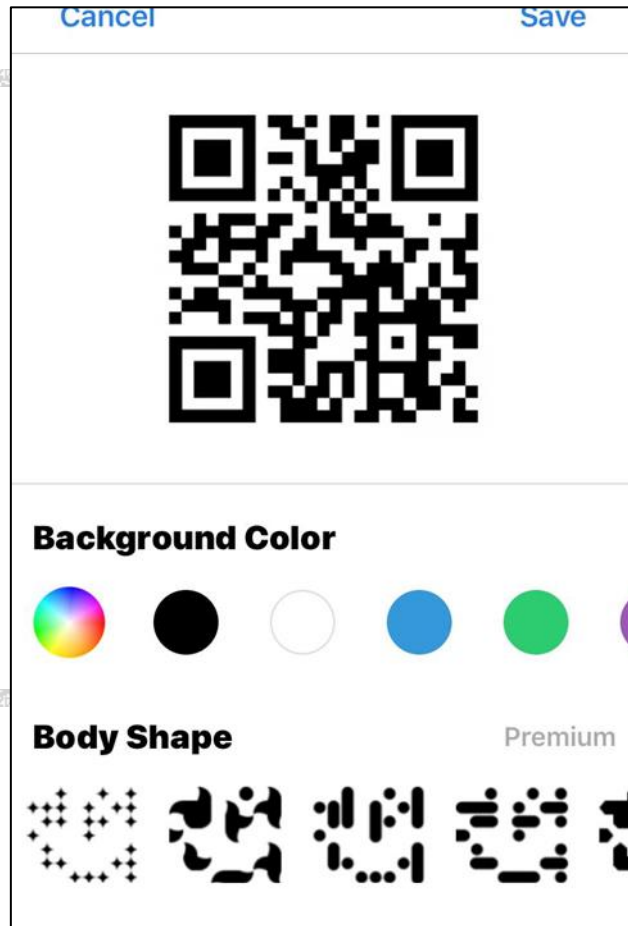

Free internet websites
e.g. <http://goqr.me/>

Free apps for your mobile phone

HOW CAN YOU GENERATE
A QR-CODE
WITH YOUR SMARTPHONE?

- IS QUICK AND EASY TO USE
- WITH HARDLY ANY ADVERTISEMENTS
- CHANGE OF BACKGROUND COLOURS

QR-CODES IN OUR LOCAL AREA

At the bus station: to check arrival and departure time on the ticket machine: to get the app to buy your bus ticket online

In museums: to get more information about the topic

USING OF QR-CODES IN THE CULTURAL FIELD

- access in several languages
- efficient & small code marker
- use of different media, for example movies, music, text
- to give more information and refer to other entries
- to meet individual needs
- easy to handle with smartphones & tablets

PERSONALLY USAGE

- Get quick further information that hides behind the code
- Checking when the bus arrives
- Very fast method to get to a website (e.g. on bills)
- Organizing a paperchase for other people with secret advices where to go next and giving the participants tasks to do
- Getting access to free WIFI in public
- Sporty Geocaching
- Easy rent bikes & scooters (eg <https://www.li.me/how-to-lime...>)

Now it's your turn:

Try to find out what is behind that QR-code!

