A VISIT IN THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL MUSEUM IN CHIETI

The city of Chieti boasts the presence of a prestigious museum located in an elegant neoclassical villa.

The building stands on a small hill that was originally inhabited by the Frigerj Family.

Once inside, the visitors can see the most important Abruzzi archeological collection.

The pupils of the fifth grade had a workshop called: "The clothes of the ancient Romans".

An expert archaeologist showed the clothes of famous people in ancient Rome

The students discovered the typical clothes of the Roman citizens and their families, reproducing and wearing the clothes of men and women with the accessories used during the ritual moments.

THE PUPILS REPRODUCED THE TYPICAL ROMAN HAIRSTYLES

The pupils collaborated and prepared the ancient clothes on their own
