Using the different ways of greeting.

"IN THE OLD FARM"

Narrator: In the old farm there are 13 animals. Every day a wolf eats some animals. Four animals friends observe the situation from a distance.

First day

1 Pig: Hello guys.

2 Donkey: Hello everyone.

3 Female Goat: Hi to all.

4 Male Goat: Hello! How many animals are there in the old farm?

1 Pig: Why?

3 Female Goat: A wolf is wandering the old farm.

2 Donkey: Ooooh! Poor us!

4 Male Goat: In the old farm there are thirteen (13) animals.

1 Pig: three horses, one rooster and one hen.

2 Donkey: two cows and one calf.

3 Female Goat: two sheep.

1 Male Goat: one goose , one rabbit and one dog.

Narrator: The next day the friends meet and count the animals the wolf ate.

Second day:

2 Donkey: Hello guys!

3 Female Goat: Hello, my dears!

4 Male Goat: What news today?

1 Pig: The wolf ate three animals.

2 Donkey: Oh my God! It's terrible!

3 Female Goat: Yes. Bad news!

4 Male Goat: Now there are ten animals in the old farm.

Narrator: On the third day the friends also meet and still count how many animals the wolf ate.

Third day -

1 Pig: Hello guys!

2 Donkey: hello friends!

3 Female Goat: what news today?

4 Male Goat: the wolf ate 4 animals in the old farm.

1 Pig: Oh my God! It's terrible!

2 Donkey: How many animals are there in the old farm?

3 Female Goat: Now there are six animals.

Narrator: The friends realize it's time to go away, if they don't want the wolf eat them too.

Fourth day

4 Male Goat: Hi guys. What about the wolf?

1 Pig: it's still around.

2 Donkey: It ate 5 other animals.

3 Female Goat: Oh pour us! What do you think if we go away?

1 Pig: I agree. Let's run, let's run. Let's go away!

2 Donkey: Yes. The wolf is insatiable!

3-4 Female: Let's go away. Let's go away!

Horse: I'm coming too!

So, the four friends run away and never return to the old farm.

The horse, the only one who survived, left with them.

The old farm was forever without animals.
