

STUDY LINK

Are you having troubles studying from home? Studylink provides free individual help and guidance online - completely free! Sign up now and connect with an expert in the subject you need help with.

What is it?

Online learning platform to support students, that connects you and your question with an expert. Thus allowing you to have an expert at hand, at all times.

How it works

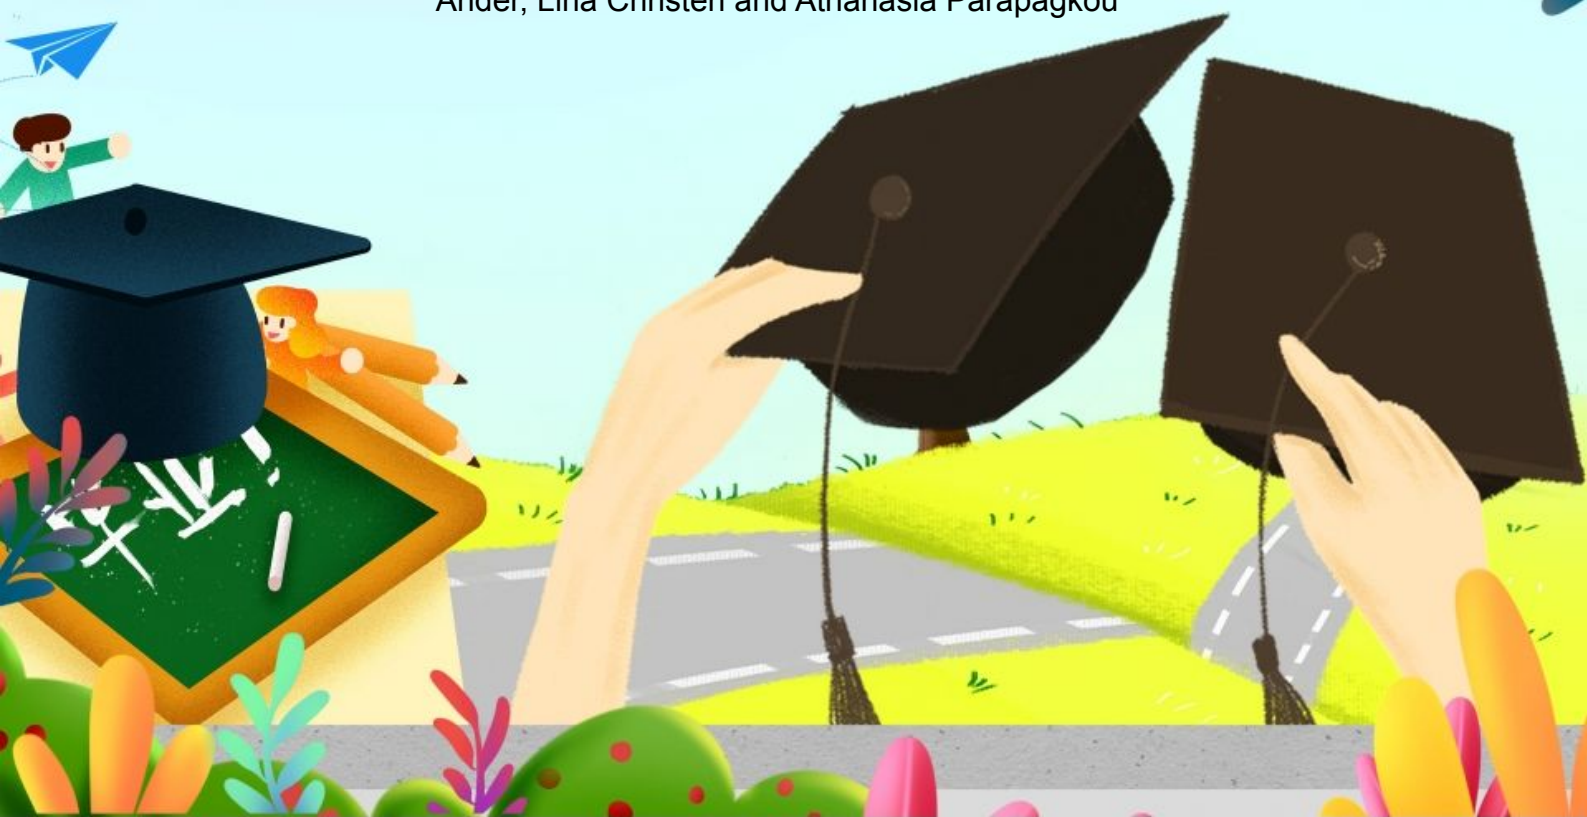

The platform connects a teacher or older student with you when you need help. On our platform you can ask questions and get help via chat or video.

Who we are

We are a group of students from all around Europe sharing the struggle of studying from home and wanting to help others.

Join us at STUDYLINK.COM

Made by: Julius Kaiser, Victor Sannicolo, Alva Ander, Lina Christen and Athanasia Parapagkou

The bottom of the page features a colorful illustration. In the foreground, two hands are shown holding black graduation caps (mortarboards) with tassels. The background includes a green chalkboard with white markings, a pencil, and a paper airplane. The scene is set against a bright, sunny landscape with green hills and a blue sky.