

On Saturday I had a barbecue,
before people came there was lots to do.
We helped our man clean the house,
while we worked it was as quiet as a mouse.

Dad ~~cleaned~~ <sup>to</sup> get some food and drink,
while I cleaned the kitchen sink.
Dad was drinking some red wine,
and on that day the sun did shine.

We sat outside and enjoyed the sun,
Man had worked hard to get things done
It was the hottest day since Abby,
but best of all he was my 10th birthday.
