

READING LIFTS YOU HIGHER

Do not read as a children do, to amuse yourself , or like the the ambitious, for the purpose of instruction. No, read in order to live (Gustave Flaubert)

THE SONG OF ACHILLE

We were like gods at the dawning of the world. & our joy was so bright we could see nothing else but the other

WONDER

Now that I look back, I don't know why I've been so stressed out all this time. It's funny to see how sometimes we worry a lot about something that is nothing

ANNE FRANK'S DIARY

for who feel scared or not understood and sad, the best solution is going out, in a place where he is completely alone, only with the sky, nature and God.

THE LORD OF THE RINGS

Not everything which is gold shines.

THE MOST FAMOUS LITERATURE PRIZES

Do you know the most famous literature prizes? If not, read here!
First of all the Nobel Prize in literature, is awarded every October by the Swedish Academy. Then in England there is the Booker prize for fiction, in America the National Book Award and the Pulitzer Prize. In Spain the Cervantes Prize, from Miguelle De Cervantes, in France the Prix Goncourt, and in Italy, two of the many prizes, are the Premio Strega and the Premio Campiello. These prizes consider only book written in the country's language. Another in Italy but international prize is the Premio Bancarella.

FUN FACT

In the world about 60-70 million books are published, they are read all over the world, the people who read the most are the youngest ranging from 6 to 19 years, in addition there are also the oldest ones ranging from 55 to 65 years are the highest readers.
The largest book that has ever been published is an edition of the Little Prince. A mega version that saw the light in Brazil in 2007.
Measurements in meters: height 2.01; width 3.08.
Instead, the longest novel in the world is In Search of Lost Time by Marcel Proust. Seven volumes for over four thousand pages and well over a million words. Their publication took place between 1913 and 1927.
The longest title in the world belongs to a book written by Vityala Yethindra. It contains 26,000 characters.

