- ▶ I spent my summer holidays in Algarve, more specifically in Pêra. Pêra is a funny name because in Portuguese means pear (fruit). Well, I stayed there two weeks in with my best-friend's grandmother house.

- ▶ We went to one of the most beautiful beaches in Europe, “Nossa Senhora da Rocha” beach. There we played football, volleyball and tennis. We had an amazing time and lots of fun. We ate Bolas de Berlim, a typical cake to eat in summer in Portugal.

There was one day that I did a photoshoot for a brand of hats named “Local”. In that day we swam very much, ate a lot of ice-cream and took sunbathing.

- ▶ On the last week we met with his cousin and we had a really good time. Firstly, we all saw a football game, then we ate on a Brazilian restaurant, at the shopping center – “AlgarveShopping”.

On the last day we went on a very famous medieval feast. It represents the old times of kings. This happens in Silves. They always do the story off Silves Castle and the figths with the Muslims, belly dances and others...
