MINIMAL WAGE

In the European Union there are many kinds of minimal wages, as shown above.

In France the minimum wage is the highest with €1457,52 and if we compare with Romania it's very different because it has the lowest minimum wage of them all with €272,00.In Italy the level of minimum wage is not covered by national laws but by negotiation between social partners.In the UK there are three minimum wages that change with age, one if you are under 18, one if you are between 18 and 21, and one if you are over 21. The highest is if you are over 21.
