

Our trip to Palermo in five pictures

the first morning in Palermo – tired and culturally shocked girls

the first group photo!

a picture from our field trip (and maybe also a bit-tired students)

our Italian-Finnish squad!

Our final day together – the last group photo

What a trip! This week taught us many valuable life lessons and introduced us to Italian culture and language. The most memorable was our trip to the reception centre to asylum seekers.