

Mole's cake

Two years ago the Mole wanted to make a cake. But he didn't have any ingredients. He went to other animals. First he went to the Rabbit for some flour. 'Hello Rabbit, have you got some flour?' Rabbit said 'Yes I have.'

Later he went to the Frog for some chocolate. Then went to the Hen for some eggs.

Then went to the Cow for some milk and butter. After that he went to the Bear for some sugar.

At last he had everything, but he didn't have a kitchen.

Then at the night he went to the old house to a kitchen.

Then he started to make a cake. When he finished a cake, he wanted to take it home. But when he was leaving, an old woman and a man came to the kitchen and started to scream on the Mole. The Mole started to run out of the kitchen. In the morning the Mole was sad, because he didn't have his cake. But then Mole's friends came with another cake for Mole. The Mole was happy because he had his cake. It was a very big surprise for him.

QUESTIONS :

What did he take from the Frog??

Where did he make the cake??
