

SURTSEY

Surtsey started forming on the 14th of November, 1963 and was fully formed on the 2nd of June, 1967.

Surtsey is the only island that has formed in the written history of the human race

When Surtsey was fully formed on the surface it was 2,7km<sup>2</sup> but because of the wind and sea it has shrunken to about 1,7km<sup>2</sup>
