DRACULA

MYTH and REALITY

Vlad Tepes (the Impaler) was a Romanian ruler from 1456 to 1462, the period of the Ottoman conquest of the Balkans.

The practice of impaling his enemies is part of his historical reputation. During his lifetime, his reputation for excessive cruelty spread abroad.

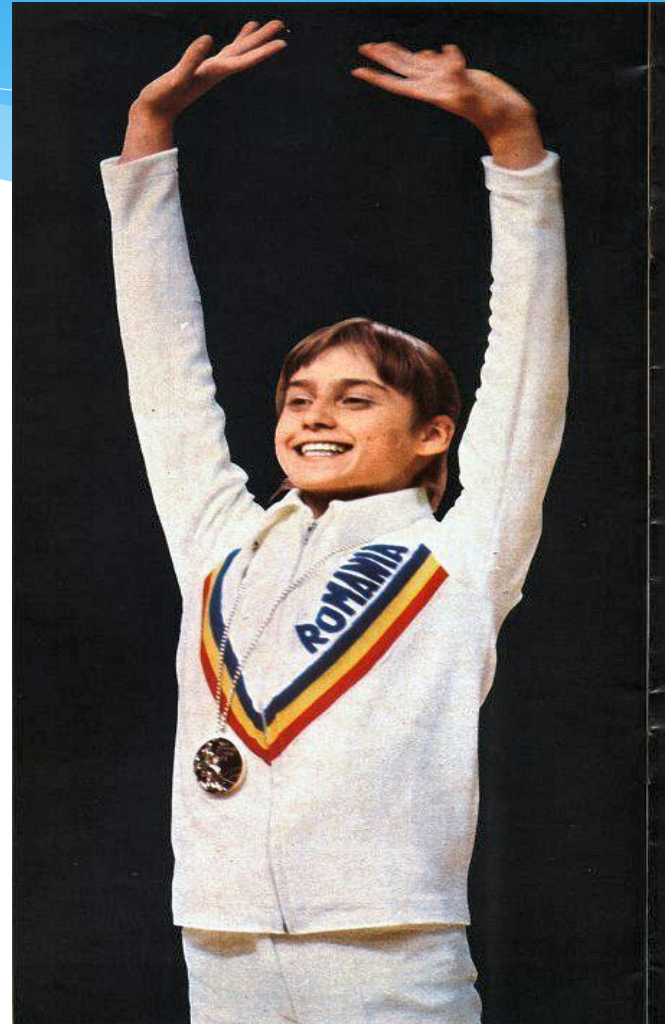

The name of the vampire Count Dracula in Bram Stoker's 1897 novel Dracula was inspired by Vlad's name and reputation.
