

INFRASTRUCTURE

- A) It is the most recent part of the national main airport.
- B) It is called after the name of the first president of the Spanish Democracy.
- C) It was opened up in 2006.

- A) It is such a notable infrastructure as better representing the third city in importance of the country.
- B) It was designed by the famous architect Santiago Calatrava
- C) This Infrastructure is composed of L`Hemisferic, El Parque de las Ciencias y el Palacio de Artes Reina Sofía.

- A) Big infrastructure that is called after the name of the Constitution of 1812
- B) It links an andalusian city with the penynsula.
- C) It is 540 meters along and its cost is 511 M €.

- A) This Mountain pass is the entrance gate to Andalusian Community
- B) It stretches along 14 Km.
- C) It was reopened in 2011 and its cost was 245 M €.

- A) It connects the Costa del Sol capital with the country capital in approximately 2 hours and 40 minutes.
- B) It comes stop in Córdoba, Ciudad Real, Puertollano, Antequera and Puente Genil.
- C) The last stretch was opened in 2007 and it is 154,5 Kms long.