

Reindeer by: Sasha and Rose 5A

How big is reindeer?

The males or bulls are usually 190cm-210cm tall and 160kg-175kg.

The females are usually 165cm-190cm tall and 85kg-110kg.

Where do reindeer live?

The reindeer was found in Scandinavia.

Large populations of wild reindeer are found in Norway, Finland and Siberia.

Some reindeer live in Lapland, in Finland.

What do reindeer eat?

Reindeer mainly eat lichens in the winter, especially reindeer lichens.

They also eat the leaves of willows and birches, as well as sedges and grasses.

How do you take care of the reindeer?

Reindeer herding is conducted in 9 countries: Finland, Norway, Sweden, Russia, Greenland, Alaska, Mongolia, China and Canada.

THE END<3