Activity:

P6 National anthems of the partner countries

Name of the activity:

6

Country: UK*Pupils age: 6-11

Place: School
(classrooms)

Date: March 2021

Number of pupils:
Drama class

Subject: Drama.

Connection to other subjects: P.E, PSHD, GEOGRAPHY.

Preparatory activities:

Children had a brainstorming activity talking about each country involved in the project. Children found the countries in the European map and their capitals.

Then children looked for facts about each country history in the ICT room, then they shared with everyone their findings.

The teacher introduced to the children about the national anthems of each country and children translated a few phrases using google translator.

Activity:

The class was divided in groups and each group practice to sing a different country anthem. When they felt confident enough they shared their songs with the whole class.

Results: This was practiced during a couple of drama lessons. Then in a whole school assembly, they performance the anthems to the whole group pointing to each country in the map and sharing facts about the history.

Comments:

Children enjoyed this activity and helped them to locate countries in a map and sing in other languages.
