Subsequent activities:

The teachers at school chose three flags to be sent to the project partners. The flags were sent by email to the coordinators in each participating country.

Results:

All the pupils voted for the best flag among the 12 flags (you could not vote for your country's flag.) The flag from Poland was chosen.

Comments:

The pupils liked the idea of the common flag and they all made a suggestion. It was quite easy to choose the three applicants and the winner was clearly the most liked.
