

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Düsseldorf

Kornelia Jasik
Szkoła Podstawowa w Głogowie Młp., POLAND

Düsseldorf-what is it?

- Düsseldorf is city, capital of North Rhine–Westphalia Land (state), western Germany. It lies mainly on the right bank of the Rhine River, 21 miles northwest of Cologne.
- It is one of the largest western cities. It is the administrative and cultural centre of the industrial Rhine-Ruhr area. It is one of the largest western cities.

MedienHafen

- Medienhafen is the most modern district of Düsseldorf. Located about 2 km from the city center, on the site of the former port. Until some time ago, there were old buildings and unused warehouses in this district. The area has been renovated and redecorated.

Königsallee

•Königsallee is the city boulevard of Düsseldorf. Königsallee is famous for both the landscaped canal that runs along its center and the fashion showrooms and luxury shops on its sides. The boulevard was by Caspar Anton Husberger

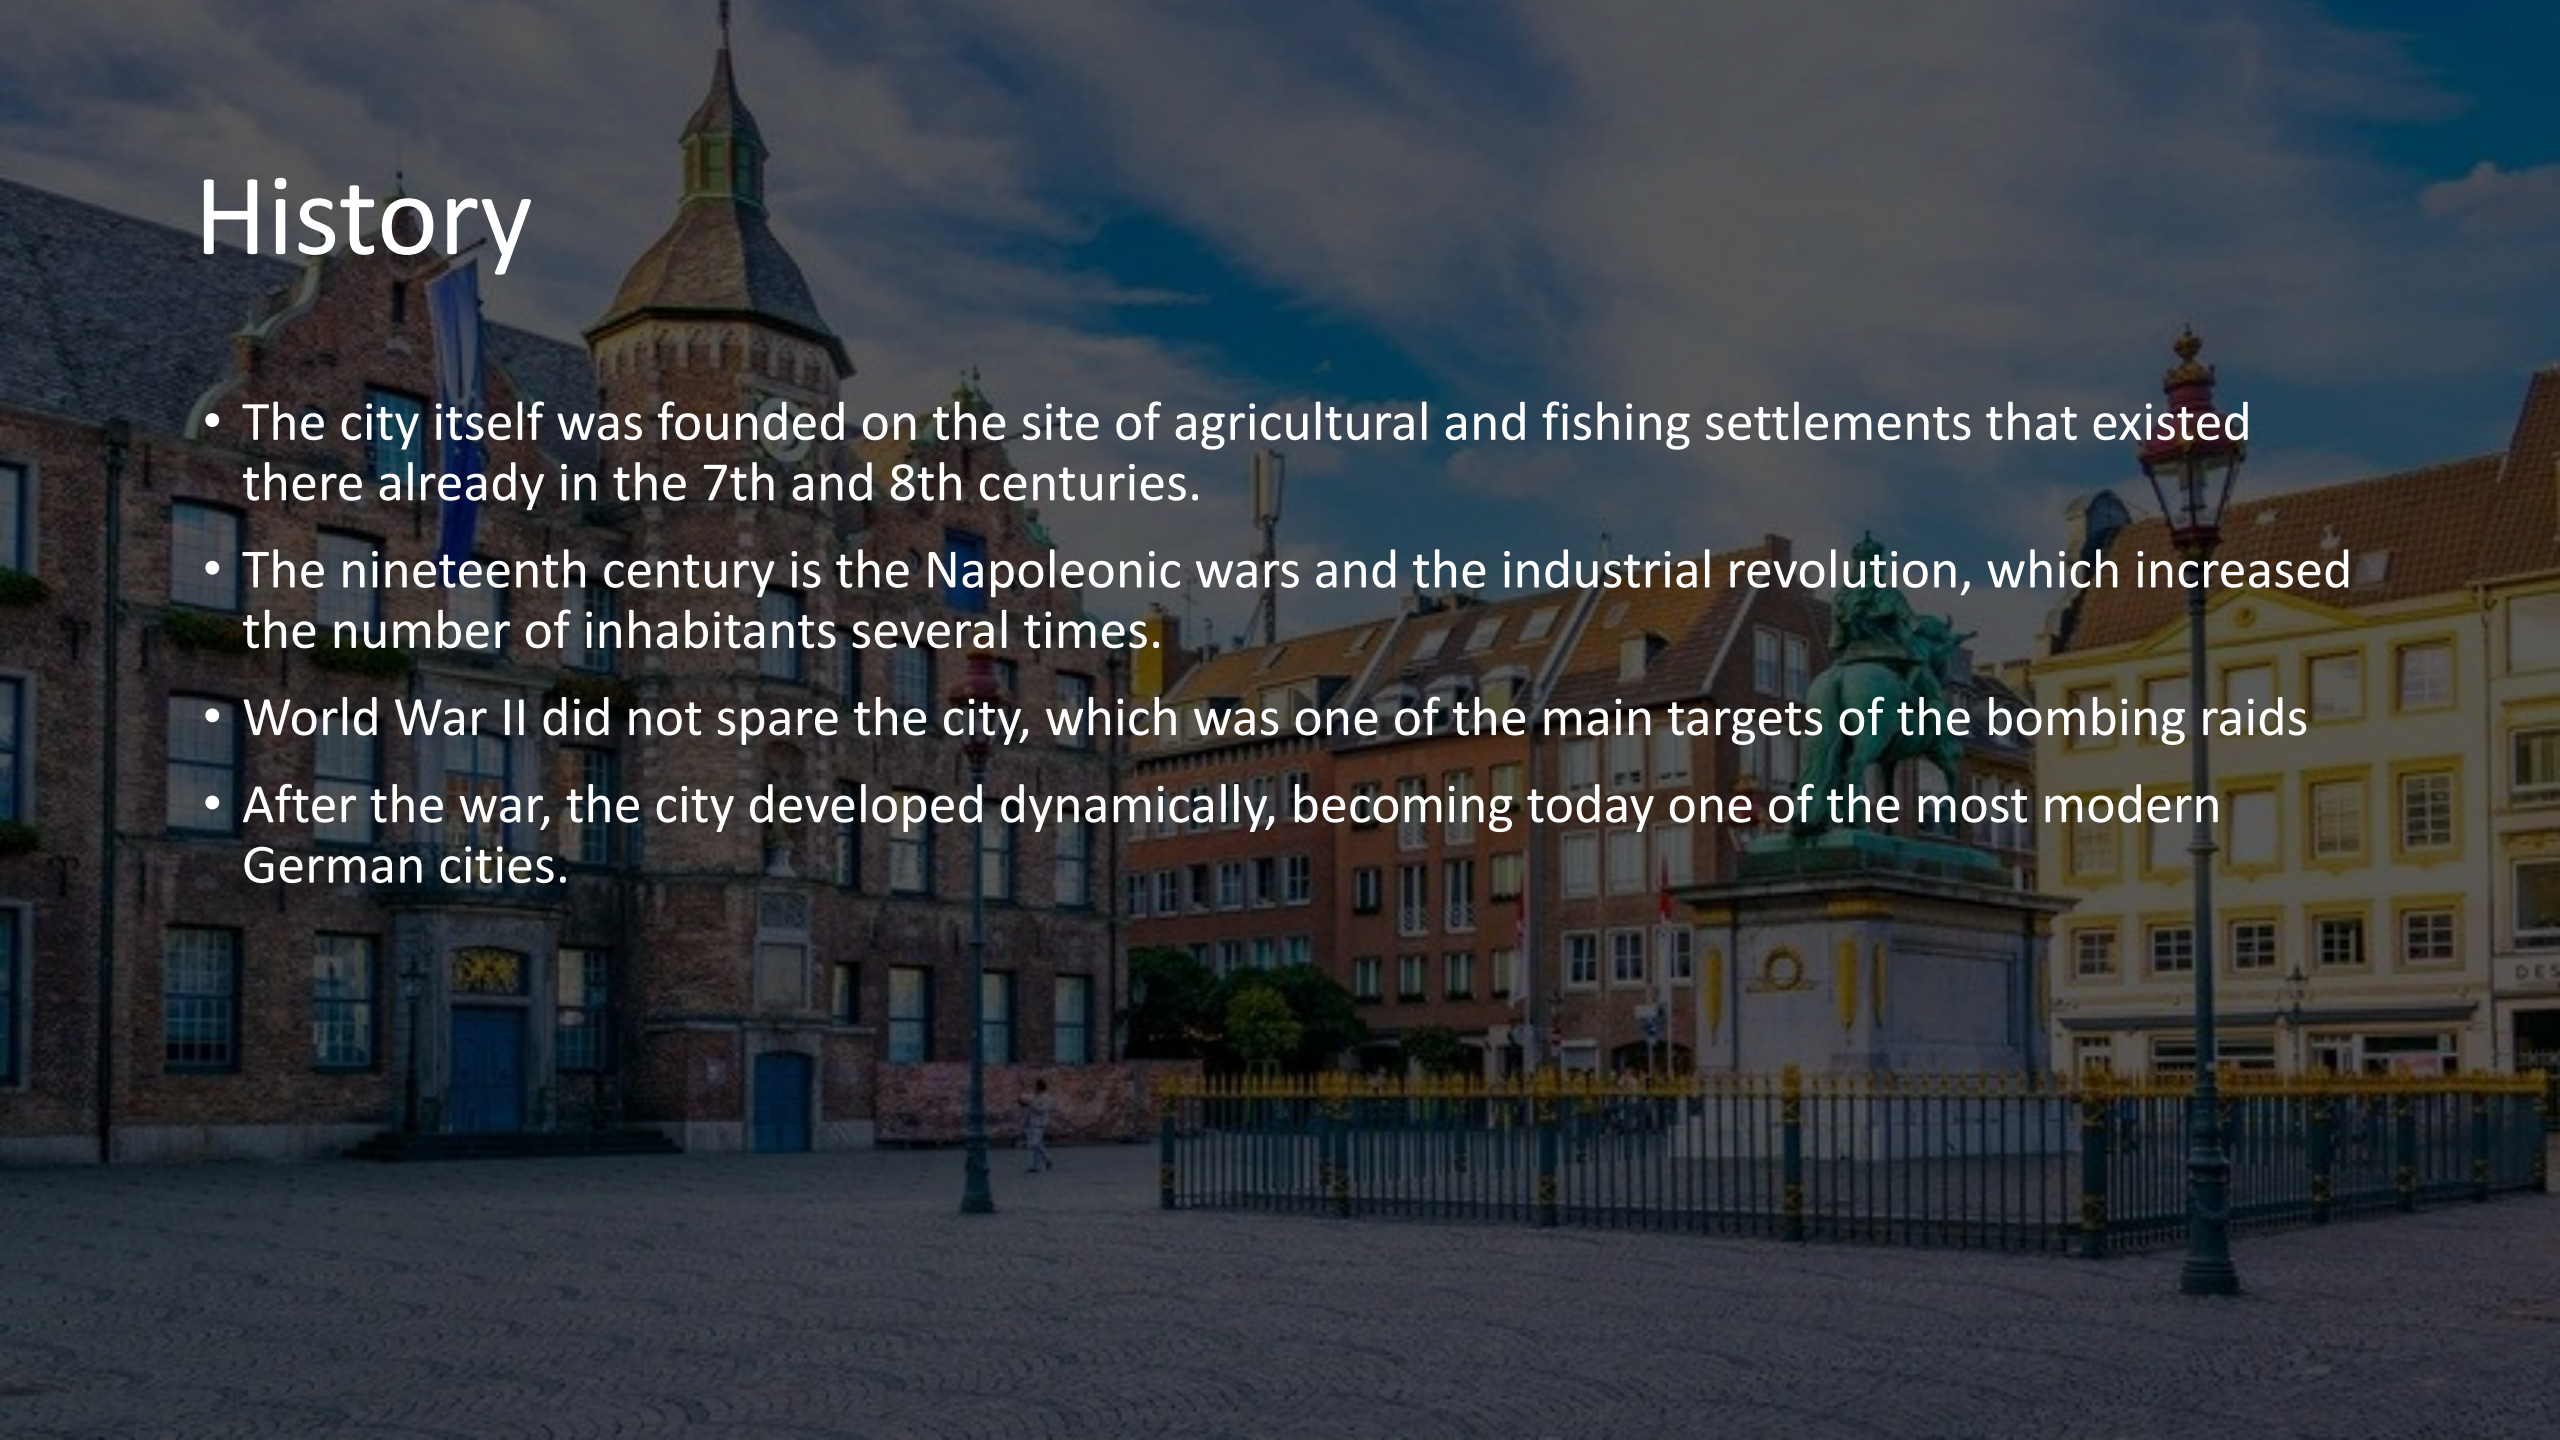

Kunstakademie Düsseldorf

- Kunstakademie Düsseldorf is the art academy of the city of Düsseldorf in Germany. In the staircase of the main entrance, the words: "Für unsere Studenten nur das Beste" what means „Only what's best for our students"

History

- The city itself was founded on the site of agricultural and fishing settlements that existed there already in the 7th and 8th centuries.
- The nineteenth century is the Napoleonic wars and the industrial revolution, which increased the number of inhabitants several times.
- World War II did not spare the city, which was one of the main targets of the bombing raids
- After the war, the city developed dynamically, becoming today one of the most modern German cities.

The longest bar in the world

- The Altstadt with the Rheinuferpromenade is colloquially called the longest bar in the world due to the impressive number of pubs, bars and restaurants there. This is especially noticeable on weekends when he spends time there.

Classic Remise Düsseldorf

- People looking for something else in the city can think about a trip to the Classic Remise Düsseldorf, a collection of old, new, historic, racing. The facility is located in a former engine shed, and the vehicles collected there can be admired free of charge.

Kaiserpfalz Kaiserswerth

- The ruins of the imperial castle - Kaiserpfalz Kaiserswerth, which will please lovers of the Middle Ages. A large part of the castle of Emperor Friedrich Barbarossa has been preserved. You can enter its area and easily walk through the remains of the former building, it is a free attraction.

Film Museum

- This interactive museums gives an exciting access to the world of filmmaking, spanning from its earliest beginnings to the present day. The exhibition rooms are located in the extension of the Hetjens Museum. In addition to technical equipment from the early history of cinematography, the collection includes set models, decorations and costumes.