

Subject: Literature

Number of lessons: 8

Teachers: Claudia Sá

Topic: The most readed books (23 april- The International Book Day).

Key words: Facebook, Canva

Lessons objectives:

Within the scope of the International Book Day (23th April), a debate between students, regarding the coolest book, took place in the school library.

- To promote reading among students.
- To develop reading skills in the students.
- To learn how to stand for the favourite book.
- To argue with discipline and “fair-play”.
- To explore the book messages.
- To relate the messages of the chosen books with the world news.
- To infer meanings.
- To interpret meanings.
- To build an organized speech.
- To respect the other’s opinion.

The debate will be broadcasted through the library facebook page.

Resources

- Computers with internet access;
- Multimedia projector;
- Tablets with internet access;
- Mobile Phones with internet access.

Lessons sequence/activity

- To make a synthesis of the chosen book (1 lesson);
- To select the most interesting ideas of the book (1 lesson);
- To write / organize the speech of each student (1 lesson);
- To make posters inviting all the students to vote in the chosen book;(2 lessons)
- To simulate a debate. (1 lesson)
- To participate in the final debate. (2 lessons).

Web Tools Canva

