

ERASMUS WEEK IN PORTO

The Erasmus week was undoubtedly the best of my entire life! I learnt so many new things with the group and got even closer with my friends.

Whether in the hotel or somewhere in the city, we were always having fun together and sharing things about our native countries, such as some typical expressions. We also had a very interesting tradition: when was someone's birthday, we would sing the happy birthday song in all the languages: Portuguese, Italian, Spanish, Lithuanian and Greek.

It was a week full of new experiences and not only did I get to know more about my city, but also I got to meet some wonderful people that I will remember for the rest of my life. Together we even created a meme called "Momento Bacalhau", which was accepted in the Urban Dictionary!

Overall, the week was terrific and I miss every single minute of those days. I wish I could go back in time and experience everything all over again!
