

Thanks to this experience I expanded my knowledge about other countries and cultures, I practiced the English language, I had the opportunity to work in team and to be self-reliant. In this way I improved my adaptability. Despite some difficulties, I recommend this kind of experience because it represents a source of personal growth.

Dalila Paterno

Italy