

PERSONAL DIARY – BY DOUNIA IFKIRAN

The reason I have chosen this photo is because it represents my stay in Cyprus so well. It is an adventure that I will never forget, I have made new friends, met a different culture, lived many adventures, I have a thousand anecdotes to tell... But above all, what makes me most happy is that I have taken wonderful people with me. I have no regrets whatsoever about my choice to go to Cyprus, on the contrary, I am proud of the decision I made.
