

THE START OF EVERYTHING...

On the right side, there's Sophia, my partner from Cyprus.

This photo is the most important one from the Erasmus week for me, because we took it the first day we met each other. Sophia and I became good friends since the first minutes so this photo means the start of a really good experience.