

My Erasmus experience in Italy

On 25th April, at 10:17 a.m., I arrived at the airport “Francisco Sá Carneiro”, and it was the start of one of the best weeks of my life. I didn’t need to wait much time until I met my colleagues: Henrique, Tatiana, Ana Chambel, Mafalda and Rafaela, as well as the three teachers that would travel with us: teacher Irene, teacher Marta and teacher Isabel. 12 hours later, we were in Palermo, the biggest city of the wonderful island of Sicily.

That week was one of the best times of my life. Everything that we visited on the island was simply beautiful, and the local Sicilians helped us with all their enthusiasm. The Erasmus group, from the students until the teachers, were all fantastic people too. I hope I can keep the friendships that I made here...

I learned a lot of new things with this trip, like the Sicilian culture and their history. I learned some words in Sicilian, Lithuanian and Cypriot, and I developed a little bit of my Spanish, as well as my English.

It was certainly an unforgettable week, and I hope that they like the week too. If I have the possibility, someday I will visit the “key to everything” again.
