

MY ERASMUS EXPERIENCE IN ITALY

A few hours of flying, many waiting, to reach the final destination - Sicily. The journey of Erasmus in Italy was long.

It was a good week, with some unforeseen events. I feel that I grew, that we all grew. This experience brought me new people and strengthened friendships. It opened my mind, I feel that I leave more tolerant and empathetic. Living with people outside my environment is always a challenging but amazing and enriching experience. This week was no exception. Sicily is beautiful.

I end with a feeling of gratitude and longing, with the desire for more. It was little and much at the same time, but it was good. Looking forward to the next opportunity. We love Erasmus!

The best place of the week: St' Angelo Muxaro!
