

My Erasmus experience in Italy

The day before my trip to Sicily I was excited, and yet afraid, because it was going to be my first flight ever. I couldn't sleep with all the expectations I had for the week and excitement to see my friends again after 5 long months.

I can tell you that all of my expectations were fulfilled and even surpassed!

I heard many things about Italy but Sicily is a hidden treasure! All of its History and heritage is simply breathtaking, the culture is absolutely fascinating and captivating, and the food? Is to die for! In this week I was able to reunite with my friends but also build a strong friendship with many others, people I'll never forget and I'm still in touch with.

This was the most memorable week of my entire life, where I got to know the "Sicilian Way" and a bit more about everyone's traditions. I truly feel thankful and enriched by this experience.

We shouted it every now and then and it's true: WE LOVE ERASMUS!

If you have the chance, I ask you to visit Sicily, the key for everything. What are you waiting to unlock it?
