

This Erasmus experience taught me there are lots of different way of living. I really appreciated how polite were the host students.
I met new people and I made new friends. I discovered new places that are completely different from those in Italy.
I will never forget this fantastic experience and I think everybody should do an Erasmus experience to become more open-minded.