

This is a photo of Maria (in the left side) and Francisca (in the middle), from Portugal, and me (Mariona is missing here). Maybe it's not the best photo but it means a lot for me. With these two and Mariona we spent so many hours together, joking, singing, talking and laughing, always laughing. Mariona and her partner Maria were SO funny and Francisca and I were laughing all the time with them. We've become so much friends during this Erasmus week. And my partner, Francisca, is now a big sister for me. We found so much things in common and I love her so much. They've become very important for me and I miss them so much. I hope I can see them again.
