

This photo has a special meaning to me because we appear all Erasmus students in the Iberian village of Esquerda.

I think that this photo represents what for me is the Erasmus project: Friendship between countries, interest for historical monuments, sustainable tourism and respect for other cultures.

by Pol Grau