

Lithuania meeting

After two intense years of being in the Erasmus journey, I finally got the chance to travel to one of the countries I had never expected to visit.

I don't believe I will ever be able to put my full experience into words, but I can say that, at the very least, it was a very emotional week.

Throughout this past week, I got to know a little bit about the culture of four different countries – Italy, Cyprus, Spain and, obviously, Lithuania. I made friends I will forever cherish, got to relive and reinforce some old ones and, more importantly, I got to know myself in new and challenging situations.

These seven days will never be forgotten, neither by me nor by everyone who got to be part of it. I truly hope that someday I'll get the chance to see everyone once again and that we can all relive a little bit of what that special week was.
