

Erasmus was the best experience in my life until now. When I travelled to Spain I was a little scared but the food, the culture and especially the people surprised me.

It was a trip to remember that gave me not only knowledge but also friends for life and memories that will last forever

Alexandra Coelho