

LOGO COMPETITION designing the project logo

During the month of December, the students from two different courses (Graphic communication and Marketing communication) were asked to create a logo for the Heritage for Development project. Details about the projects were given to the students so that they could understand the task and the features that should be included in the look and feel of the final logo.

Out of the many logos, the teachers involved chose the following two logos

