My school

As I have already mentioned the name of my school is Geschwister-Scholl Gesamtschule. Gesamtschule means as much as comprehensive school. I have been in that school for one and a half years. The school has Erasmus as a working group. The school is about 30 years old. The school has its name from two famous siblings who were called Hans Scholl and Sophie Scholl. In Erasmus we have a garden that helps us with our Präsentations about Plants in Germany.
