

Urban Gymkhana in Málaga 1

TEAM NAME: _____

MEMBERS: _____

Hi, team!

The aim of this gymkhana is to visit some of the most interesting places in Málaga's old town.

Instructions:

1. Solve the riddles to discover the places.
2. Find the places on your maps and get there.
3. Take a team picture with the monument.

Place #1:

This huge building can be seen from any place in the city. It's the tallest religious building in Andalucía. It misses one of its towers because the city did not have the money to finish it in the 17th century. It used to be a mosque.

It's the C _ _ _ _ _ !

Place #2:

This character is one of the most important artists of all times. He was a painter, sculptor, potter... His statue is sitting on one of the benches in La Merced square. Take a picture with him!

He is P _ _ _ _ _

Place #3:

This is a busy place full of life and action. You'll find all types of fruit, vegetables, meat and fish! There are also bars to have a drink and a tapa while you shop. In the Middle Ages it was a place where ships were built. The whole building is Nasrid (Arabian) style.

It's the Atarazanas M_ _ _ _ _ .

Place #4:

This big square is a strategic place in the city. It's located where the old walls of the city used to be to protect it from the sea. Nowadays, it is the entrance to the Port. In this square you'll find the statue of a “cenachero”, a traditional fish seller. Take a picture with him!

It's in Plaza de la M_ _ _ _ _ .

Place #5:

December 16th 1900, the German warship Gneisenan wrecked near the coast of Málaga. Hundreds of local people got into the sea to rescue the sailors, risking their own lives. Due to this, the King of Spain gave the city of Málaga the title of “Very Hospitable”.

At the top of this mystery building we can see a woman (representing Málaga) assisting an injured man. This is also the place where the Mayor and his team work.

It's the T_ _ _ H_ _ _ . Take a picture at the front door!

Urban Gymkhana in Málaga 2

TEAM NAME: _____

MEMBERS: _____

Hi, team!

The aim of this gymkhana is to visit some of the most interesting places in Málaga's old town.

Instructions:

1. Solve the riddles to discover the places.
2. Find the places on your maps and get there.
3. Take a team picture with the monument.

Place #1:

This big square is a strategic place in the city. It's located where the old walls of the city used to be to protect it from the sea. Nowadays, it is the entrance to the Port. In this square you'll find the statue of a "cenachero", a traditional fish seller. Take a picture with him!

It's in Plaza de la M_ _ _ _ .

Place #2:

This is a busy place full of life and action. You'll find all types of fruit, vegetables, meat and fish! There are also bars to have a drink and a tapa while you shop. In the Middle Ages it was a place where ships were built. The whole building is Nasrid (Arabian) style.

It's the Atarazanas M_ _ _ _ .

Place #3:

This character is one of the most important artists of all times. He was a painter, sculptor, potter... His statue is sitting on one of the benches in La Merced square. Take a picture with him!

He is P_ _ _ _ _

Place #4:

This huge building can be seen from any place in the city. It's the tallest religious building in Andalucía. It misses one of its towers because the city did not have the money to finish it in the 17th century. It used to be a mosque.

It's the C_ _ _ _ _ !

Place #5:

December 16th 1900, the German warship Gneisenan wrecked near the coast of Málaga. Hundreds of local people got into the sea to rescue the sailors, risking their own lives. Due to this, the King of Spain gave the city of Málaga the title of "Very Hospitable".

At the top of this mystery building we can see a woman (representing Málaga) assisting an injured man. This is also the place where the Mayor and his team work.

It's the T_ _ _ H_ _ _ . Take a picture at the front door!

Urban Gymkhana in Málaga 3

TEAM NAME: _____

MEMBERS: _____

Hi, team!

The aim of this gymkhana is to visit some of the most interesting places in Málaga's old town.

Instructions:

1. Solve the riddles to discover the places.
2. Find the places on your maps and get there.
3. Take a team picture with the monument.

Place #1:

This is a busy place full of life and action. You'll find all types of fruit, vegetables, meat and fish! There are also bars to have a drink and a tapa while you shop. In the Middle Ages it was a place where ships were built. The whole building is Nasrid (Arabian) style.

It's the Atarazanas M_ _ _ _ _ .

Place #2:

This big square is a strategic place in the city. It's located where the old walls of the city used to be to protect it from the sea. Nowadays, it is the entrance to the Port. In this square you'll find the statue of a "cenachero", a traditional fish seller. Take a picture with him!

It's in Plaza de la M_ _ _ _ _ .

Place #3:

This huge building can be seen from any place in the city. It's the tallest religious building in Andalucía. It misses one of its towers because the city did not have the money to finish it in the 17th century. It used to be a mosque.

It's the C_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ !

Place #4:

This character is one of the most important artists of all times. He was a painter, sculptor, potter... His statue is sitting on one of the benches in La Merced square. Take a picture with him!

He is P_ _ _ _ _ _

Place #5:

December 16th 1900, the German warship Gneisenan wrecked near the coast of Málaga. Hundreds of local people got into the sea to rescue the sailors, risking their own lives. Due to this, the King of Spain gave the city of Málaga the title of "Very Hospitable".

At the top of this mystery building we can see a woman (representing Málaga) assisting an injured man. This is also the place where the Mayor and his team work.

It's the T_ _ _ H_ _ _ . Take a picture at the front door!

Urban Gymkhana in Málaga 4

TEAM NAME: _____

MEMBERS: _____

Hi, team! The aim of this gymkhana is to visit some of the most interesting places in Málaga's old town.

Instructions:

1. Solve the riddles to discover the places.
2. Find the places on your maps and get there.
3. Take a team picture with the monument.

Place #1:

This character is one of the most important artists of all times. He was a painter, sculptor, potter... His statue is sitting on one of the benches in La Merced square. Take a picture with him!

He is P _ _ _ _ _

Place #2:

This huge building can be seen from any place in the city. It's the tallest religious building in Andalucía. It misses one of its towers because the city did not have the money to finish it in the 17th century. It used to be a mosque.

It's the C _ _ _ _ _ _ _ !

Place #3:

This big square is a strategic place in the city. It's located where the old walls of the city used to be to protect it from the sea. Nowadays, it is the entrance to the Port. In this square you'll find the statue of a "cenachero", a traditional fish seller. Take a picture with him!

It's in Plaza de la M_ _ _ _ .

Place #4:

This is a busy place full of life and action. You'll find all types of fruit, vegetables, meat and fish! There are also bars to have a drink and a tapa while you shop. In the Middle Ages it was a place where ships were built. The whole building is Nasrid (Arabian) style.

It's the Atarazanas M_ _ _ _ .

Place #5:

December 16th 1900, the German warship Gneisenan wrecked near the coast of Málaga. Hundreds of local people got into the sea to rescue the sailors, risking their own lives. Due to this, the King of Spain gave the city of Málaga the title of "Very Hospitable".

At the top of this mystery building we can see a woman (representing Málaga) assisting an injured man. This is also the place where the Mayor and his team work.

It's the T_ _ _ H_ _ _ . Take a picture at the front door!

Urban Gymkhana in Málaga 5

TEAM NAME: _____

MEMBERS: _____

Hi, team!

The aim of this gymkhana is to visit some of the most interesting places in Málaga's old town.

Instructions:

1. Solve the riddles to discover the places.
2. Find the places on your maps and get there.
3. Take a team picture with the monument.

Place #1:

This is a busy place full of life and action. You'll find all types of fruit, vegetables, meat and fish! There are also bars to have a drink and a tapa while you shop. In the Middle Ages it was a place where ships were built. The whole building is Nasrid (Arabian) style.

It's the Atarazanas M_ _ _ _ _ .

Place #2:

This character is one of the most important artists of all times. He was a painter, sculptor, potter... His statue is sitting on one of the benches in La Merced square. Take a picture with him!

He is P_ _ _ _ _

Place #3:

This huge building can be seen from any place in the city. It's the tallest religious building in Andalucía. It misses one of its towers because the city did not have the money to finish it in the 17th century. It used to be a mosque.

It's the C_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ !

Place #4:

This big square is a strategic place in the city. It's located where the old walls of the city used to be to protect it from the sea. Nowadays, it is the entrance to the Port. In this square you'll find the statue of a “cenachero”, a traditional fish seller. Take a picture with him!

It's in Plaza de la M_ _ _ _ _ .

Place #5:

December 16th 1900, the German warship Gneisenan wrecked near the coast of Málaga. Hundreds of local people got into the sea to rescue the sailors, risking their own lives. Due to this, the King of Spain gave the city of Málaga the title of “Very Hospitable”.

At the top of this mystery building we can see a woman (representing Málaga) assisting an injured man. This is also the place where the Mayor and his team work.

It's the T_ _ _ H_ _ _ . Take a picture at the front door!

Urban Gymkhana in Málaga 6

TEAM NAME: _____

MEMBERS: _____

Hi, team!

The aim of this gymkhana is to visit some of the most interesting places in Málaga's old town.

Instructions:

1. Solve the riddles to discover the places.
2. Find the places on your maps and get there.
3. Take a team picture with the monument.

Place #1:

This huge building can be seen from any place in the city. It's the tallest religious building in Andalucía. It misses one of its towers because the city did not have the money to finish it in the 17th century. It used to be a mosque.

It's the C _ _ _ _ _ !

Place #2:

This character is one of the most important artists of all times. He was a painter, sculptor, potter... His statue is sitting on one of the benches in La Merced square. Take a picture with him!

He is P _ _ _ _ _

Place #3:

This is a busy place full of life and action. You'll find all types of fruit, vegetables, meat and fish! There are also bars to have a drink and a tapa while you shop. In the Middle Ages it was a place where ships were built. The whole building is Nasrid (Arabian) style.

It's the Atarazanas M_ _ _ _ _ .

Place #4:

This big square is a strategic place in the city. It's located where the old walls of the city used to be to protect it from the sea. Nowadays, it is the entrance to the Port. In this square you'll find the statue of a "cenachero", a traditional fish seller. Take a picture with him!

It's in Plaza de la M_ _ _ _ _ .

Place #5:

December 16th 1900, the German warship Gneisenan wrecked near the coast of Málaga. Hundreds of local people got into the sea to rescue the sailors, risking their own lives. Due to this, the King of Spain gave the city of Málaga the title of "Very Hospitable".

At the top of this mystery building we can see a woman (representing Málaga) assisting an injured man. This is also the place where the Mayor and his team work.

It's the T_ _ _ H_ _ _ . Take a picture at the front door!